

Attention FDA

0429 '00 APR -6 P1:35

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

In my case the answer is a definite NO!

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ... I have had Audiologist come to my house and try to sell me hearing aids that were completely unaffordable.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

No, all Our Rights are being eroded by Bureaucrats we are being pushed into a regimented government by Bureaucratic Agencies!

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

*yes, another one of Our Rights are being invaded!
I could never afford the hearing aids presented to me by the Doctors and Audiologist. I am happy that I can hear now with the help of mail ordering of hearing aids. They have made hearing aids available to the lower income people.*
